

WINDOW DRESSING ■ By VALERIE A. RUSSO/For The Patriot Ledger

▼ FROM THE HEART: The love between sisters, one of whom has Down syndrome, shines through in "My Sister, Alicia May," a tender story (based on the lives of two sisters) written by Nancy Tupper Ling of Walpole and beautifully illustrated by Shermen Bersani of Brookton.

The 32-page hardcover, which retails for $16.95, is a must-read for any family with special-needs children. The book is available from publisher Pleasant Street Press in Raynham, pleasantstreetpress.com, as well as Buttonwood Books and Toys in Cohasset (781-383-2665) and other local bookstores.

► HOW SWEET: This bakery box appears to contain cupcakes. But inside there's a sweet surprise – four cotton Onesies for an infant weighing up to 16 pounds. Two are white and two are pastel (pink, blue or yellow); each is decorated with a removable flower or fruit topper. A box of four Cupcake Onesies is $40 at Paperscapes, 47A S. Main St., Cohasset. 781-383-8008.

▲ FLATTER sandals made of introduced after there was a sho Europe.

Today, they're Pictured is "Sin," embellished jelly designer J Mask made in Brazil. I of Easton, 285 V Easton. Posh as Melissa jelly flat: take you from be and comfort. 50!

Come across any pr: Russo by e-mail: varus